Dr. Billy Thames begins 30th year as president

Dr. Billy Thames

On January 20, 1968, Dr. Billy B. Thames came to work at Copiah-Lincoln Community College as president of the college. The young 34-year-old president would go on to serve longer than any of the previous three presidents and an acting president Progress is the word to best describe Dr. Billy Thames.

Upon becoming president, hew would launch a building program over the next few years; launch a campaign that would triple the enrollment over the years; launch new programs that were beneficial to the college district; and launch or expand new services to citizens of the district.

Dr. Thames would meet with officials in Adams County to establish a second campus of Copiah-Lincoln Community College. In 1972 the Natchez Campus opened, today serving more than 1500 students annually. The recently completed $4.6 million Natchez Campus on Beltline Road brought together the Vocational-Technical Program with the academic program on the same campus. A modern Vo-Tech Building opened on the Natchez Campus in 1988.

Dr. Thames is currently among the five longest serving presidents with over 25 years in the nation, a recognition presented at last year's American Community College Association's annual meeting. Dr. Thames began his 30*th* year as president of Co-Lin in January, 1997. He is the first alumnus chosen as president of the college.

Dr. Billy Thames continues to look to the future. This year the Ewing Fine Arts Building is scheduled for renovation and the Alumni Association plans to complete a campaign to raise funds for the construction of a non-denominational chapel on the Wesson Campus.

Dr. Howell Garner leads faculty as dean

Dr. Howell C. Garner has been at Copiah-Lincoln Community College for 23 years, having served as assistant dean and dean of the Natchez campus until 1985 when he was named Dean of the College.

Dr. Garner is constantly working to improve the instructional programs of the college and helping make Co-Lin a better place to be. He is fully dedicated to the principles and objectives of Co-Lin. Expansion of programs and courses have come about under his leadership.

Dr. Garner and his wife, Candance, have two sons: Brad, a 1994 honor graduate of Co-Lin and a senior at Mississippi State University; and Justin, a freshman at Co-Lin.

Dr. Garner holds a bachelor of arts from Mississippi State University, and a master of education and a doctorate of education, both from the University of Southern Mississippi. He has done additional work at the University of Mississippi School of Law and at Mississippi College.

The Garner family includes (l to r) Justin Garner, a Co-Lin freshman; Mrs. Candance Garner; Dr. Howell Garner; and Brad Garner, a senior at Mississippi State University and a Co-Lin graduate.

The 1997 Trillium is dedicated to —

* a native of Lawrence County and a 1954 graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Community College where he was selected to the very first Hall of Fame.

* Received prestigious Hope Award from Multiple Sclerosis Society and Service Award from Mississippi Humanities Council, both in December, 1996; Service to Humanity Award, Mississippi College, 1976; one of eight Most Distinguished Alumni in United States, Phi Theta Kappa, 1975; first Alumnus of Year at Co-Lin, 1970; Betterment of Life in Lawrence County award, 1975.

* Three times president, Wesson Lions Club; past District Governor and past chairman Lions Council of Governors; past president, Lions Sight Foundation.

* Past president, Wesson and Copiah County Chambers of Commerce; two-year chairman of Mississippi Humanities Council; past chairman, Copiah Competitive Leadership Project; member, Governor's Task Force of Accreditation and the Executive Management Council; member, Private Industry Council.

* Member, Board of Directors, Mississippi Association of School Administrators; chairman of Millennium Workforce Group; Mississippi Community College Foundation.

* Member, deacon, trustee, Wesson Baptist Church; superintendent of Adult Sunday School Department; past member, Education Commission of Mississippi Baptist Convention and of the Baptist Record Advisory Committee.

Novel Farewells From Around the World

Good-bye, Adios, Au revoir, Arrivederic, Sa Yo Na Ra

The 1996-1997 editors Ricky Moak, Kelly Walker, and Shelly Smith, would like to thank everyone who contributed to the 1997 Trillium. We would like to especially thank Burlian Walker, Johnny Smith, and the Trillium staff.

Generations of students have graced Co-Lin with their skills, knowledge, ambitions, and innovative ideas. We hope the generations to come will enjoy the traditions and legacy we leave behind. Our service on the Trillium staff is in honor of the dedicated faculty, who make Co-Lin "The Place-to-Be" and the students, so they may share their experience with the future generations. We hope everyone will take the few memories collected in this edition and enjoy them to the fullest.

RAINMAKER

Celebrating 25 Years of Educational Excellence

Co-Lin/Natchez continues to be an exciting "Place to Be." During the 1996-1997 school year we had a lot to celebrate. Not only did we celebrate 25 years of educational excellence, but we also celebrated one year of being in our new academic facility at Beltline.

To celebrate our achievements, we hosted several community events. These events included a Dedication; a reception honoring our retiring dean, Travis Thornton and his wife, Jenny; and an Open House. During Open House, visitors toured our facilities, met the faculty and staff, and said hello to our new dean, Paul Johnson.

In the midst of our celebration, we paused to recognize the exceptional administration, faculty, professional, secretarial, and support staff, student body, and citizens of Adams County who banded together and strove to accomplish the dream of having our academic and vocational-technical facilities located at one site.

And, as we celebrate this 25th Anniversary, we thank all of those individuals for not only envisioning a bright and exciting future for us, but also doing what it took to make the dream a reality.

We are especially indebted to the faculty who encouraged and applauded our successes and accomplishments as we struggled to achieve our educational goals.

Co-Lin/Natchez has been our RAINMAKER, pouring out showers of knowledge. And, we commit ourselves to accept the challenge of becoming RAINMAKERS in our world.

The Enlightened Circle

Paul Johnson Dean of the Natchez Campus

Paul Johnson became dean of the Natchez Campus in July, 1996. For eight years he served as head basketball coach for Co-Lin. Johnson holds a Masters of Education degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, a Bachelor of Science degree from Belhaven College in Jackson, and an Associates degree from Jones County Junior College in Ellisville. Currently, he is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Mississippi in Oxford.

Johnson is an active member of the Natchez Chamber of Commerce, serving on the education, unification, and green coats committees. He is also a member of the National Council of Instructional Administrations and the Mississippi Association of School Administrators. He is a former member of the Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce, the Hoopfest Basketball Championship Committee, the Mississippi Association of Coaches, and the National Association of Basketball Coaches. Moreover, he is past president of the Mississippi Community/Junior College Basketball Coaches Association.

Johnson envisions a bright and promising future for Co-Lin and the Miss-Lou community. According to him, "Our challenges for the future are to find ways to offer all the courses wanted and needed by our students and community, to adapt and develop teaching strategies for students growing up in the computer age. I think the important point is to be willing and ready to change and to make changes. Co-Lin has always been out front in that regard. This is a very exciting time for education and educators."

Want to go to the movies? Well, not quite to the movies. But, what about learning French, emergency medical Spanish, Spanish for law enforcement, and/or world geography through interactive television? If you are truly interested, Co-Lin is definitely the place to be. Co-Lin is a part of the Community College Network (CCN).

CCN is described as the nation's most comprehensive state-wide teaching system. So if you are interested in speaking a foreign language or attending conferences without having to travel the distance, we suggest CCN. Just bring a pen and pad for note-taking.
